BIMONTHLY REVIEW

November/December 1989

THE MARKETPLACE

The year is coming to a close. This will be our final publication for the year. Everyone should have their copies of the Byzantine sale in hand at this point. If you haven't already received CNA IX, it will be in your mail box shortly.

This has been a busy year. Six lists of offering over 800 coins at fixed prices. Five auctions with over 3200 lots of coins. One book auction with over 260 lots of books. Fifteen shows and five Classical Numismatic Bourses. Plus several trips to Europe thrown in. Yes, it has been a very active year for us in the ancient coin market.

We have seen a general decline in the availability of better coins. However, through hard work and a little good luck we have managed to offer you some exciting material over the last year.

Next year, a few changes are being planned. More about those in January. A hint of things to come. This publication will change its name to the Classical Numismatic Review. In case you haven't noticed, we are starting to incorporate the "Classical Numismatic" term into just about everything we produce.

A thank you to all of you who have supported us throughout the year. We hope that your holidays are peaceful and relaxing. We look forward to being of service in the new year.

You currently have two auctions on hand from us. The Byzantine sale that we are holding in conjunction with Harlan Berk in December is an exciting departure for us.

Kerry put many hours into the numismatic scholarship behind this catalog. Even if you don't collect Byzantine coins, it is a well written and informative sale that should provide you with insights into Byzantine Numismatics for years to come.

The December CNA IX sale is a nice

#44. A very rare gold stater of Asandros, King of Bosphorus. #103. An exceptional Sestertius of Antoninus Pius with Britannia seated on the reverse. #189. A beautiful portrait of Henry VII.

offering of high grade material. There are nice runs of gold and silver, plus a good offering of Roman bronzes and a nice collection of Byzantine gold. There are 157 lots of Roman Republican. This is part of a major collection we are selling in this sale and will finish up in the February Mail Bid Sale. This collection was formed over the last twenty five years and offers coins that we have never had the opportunity to offer before. This collection is ideal for the beginning and specialized collector alike.

Thinking of selling your collection? We are active buyers of material. If you don't want to sell outright, we can certainly offer you the advantages of selling by auction.

1. We will pay spot cash for coins.
2. We will take better coins on consignment for sale privately.
3. We will take coins and books for sale through our auctions. Better coins in top condition are run through our public sales held twice a year in New York. General collector coins are featured in our two annual mail bid sales. Numismatic literature is featured in our two mail bid sales and in our annual Classical Numismatic Literature sale held every summer.

Many different ways to sell coins. Please give us the opportunity to discuss your plans if you have material for sale.

We are constantly buying and selling coins all over the world and need new material regularly.
